A membership application shall not be denied because of race, age, or religious preference. Each applicant shall be notified by the Membership Chairman of the vote of the Board of Directors relative to his application.

Section 4: Suspension of Membership or Expulsion. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to suspend from good standing in BFSC or to — from the BFSC any member for failure to pay indebtedness to the club when due, or for other conduct which in the judgment of the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors, as the case may be, is detrimental or injurious to the interests of the BFSC. A suspended individual may be reinstated at anytime by the decision of the Board of Directors. Except in the case of suspension or expulsion for nonpayment of dues or other indebtedness to the BFSC, any suspension or expulsion must take place in accordance with the following procedure:

- A. Grievance Amendment: The Board of Directors of the BFSC, or any BFSC member or members, or other USFSA member club having complaint against a BFSC member for violation of the by-laws or rules of the BFSC, for violation of the Code of Conduct of the USFSA (as set forth in GR1.O3 or any subsequent version of the said Code of Conduct) for the infraction of any law, or for conduct detrimental or injurious to the welfare of the BFSC may report the same in writing to the Board of Directors. Such complaint shall set forth the factual allegations, together with the names of witnesses, if any.
- B. Notice of Hearing: After receiving such complaint, the Board of Directors shall give the member whose suspension or expulsion is ought (hereinafter “the respondent”) notice in writing of his/her proposed suspension or expulsion and the reasons therefore. Such notice shall be mailed, certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address of the respondent as shown on the most recent records of the BFSC and shall include the date and location of the scheduled hearing on such complaint. Notice of the date and location of the hearing shall also be mailed, first class mail, postage prepaid, to all complainants. Electronic mail shall not be utilized during Grievance proceedings, Notices of Hearings and similar matters requesting the involvement of the Executive Committee.

- C. Hearing conducted by Executive Committee: A hearing shall be held before the Executive Committee of the BFSC, consisting of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Test Chairman. Each member of the Executive Committee must be present at the hearing. If there is a vacancy in one of these offices, or the complainant is a member of the Executive Committee, or if one member is incapacitated, the Membership Chairman shall be substituted for that absent or alleged officer. The hearing shall be held as soon as practicable provided that the hearing must be held not less than 15 days nor more than 60 days after the date upon which such notice was mailed to the respondent. At the hearing, the respondent and the complainant shall be provided an opportunity to be heard, along with any witnesses. A majority vote of the Executive Committee shall be effective to suspend or expel the respondent provided that the Executive Committee reduce to writing its decision which shall include findings of fact and a recitation of the testimony upon which it relied in reaching its decision.
- D. Appeal From the Decision of the Executive Committee: An appeal from a decision of the Executive Committee may be taken by either the respondent or the complainant by serving a written notice of such appeal upon the Secretary within ten (10) days of the decision of the Executive Committee. A special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be called within forty-five (45) days for the consideration of the matter. Both the respondent and complainant shall be given at least ten (10) days written notice of the date and location of the special meeting entitled to be heard, along with any witnesses and the matter shall be heard de novo by the Board of Directors. A majority decision of the Board of Directors shall be reduced to writing, along with the reasons upon which the decision is based, and shall be final.
- E. Suspension or expulsion for nonpayment of indebtedness to the BFSC may be accomplished by a majority vote of the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, without the necessity of a hearing as provided in paragraph (c) above, upon a statement signed by the treasurer of the BFSC of the amount owed and the reason for the indebtedness and the duration of its delinquency. Such written statement shall be attached to the minutes of the meeting at which suspension or expulsion occurred. The Board of Directors may reinstate the suspended or expelled member upon his/her payment of the debt.
- F. Automatic Expulsion: Any BFSC member expelled from the USFSA in accordance with its Constitution, by-laws, or rules shall automatically be deemed expelled from the BFSC forthwith by the Board of Directors, whose action shall be final and conclusive.
- G. Suspension or expulsion shall not relieve the suspended or expelled member from any previously incurred financial obligation to the BFSC.

Article IV Membership Meetings

Section 1. Annual Meeting: An annual meeting for the transaction of business and the election of directors shall take place during the fiscal year of the BFSC at such time and such place as may be determined by the Board of Directors. The election of directors should take place in time that a list of newly elected officers can be timely provided to the USFSA for listing in its directory for the upcoming year. The results of the annual election of Directors and officers shall be reported to the USFSA within 30 days of the election as provided by M.R.8.04.

Section 2. Special Meetings: The President and/or the Board of Directors shall have the authority to call special meetings of the BFSC. Special meetings shall also be called by the Secretary upon the written petition, whether postal or electronic mail, of ten percent (10%) of the membership. All petitioners must be voting members. Notice of special meetings must be provided to all members of the BFSC in advance of the date of the meeting in accordance with Article IV Section 3 below. At any such meeting, only such business as is clearly set forth in the call for the meeting shall be considered.

Section 3. Notice of Annual and Special Meetings of the Membership: Written notice stating the place date and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than 10 nor more than 50 days before the date of the meeting, either personally, by mail, or by electronic mail or at the direction of the President, or the Secretary or the secretary acting pursuant to the written petition of 10% of the membership, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the U.S. mail addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the BFSC, with postage prepaid thereon. (§10-3A-29, Ala. Code, 1975)

Section 4. Mail Voting: The business of the BFSC may be decided by means of a mail vote, postal mail or electronic mail, upon authority of the Board of Directors or by referendum request. Such request for a vote shall be transmitted in writing, postal or electronic format, to the BFSC over the signatures of the petitioners, all of whom must be voting members whose number must equal at least ten percent (10%) of the membership of the BFSC. Complete written details and request for a vote shall be sent to each member entitled to vote at least fifteen (15) days prior to the deadline for tabulation of the votes. A quorum for a vote by mail, postal or electronic, shall be the return, within the deadline specified, of twenty-five (25%) of all full members who are eligible to vote. Any matter so submitted to a mail, postal or electronic, vote should be determined by a majority of the ballots cast. The members shall be notified by postal or electronic mail, of the results of the voting.

Section 5. Proxy Voting: Full-voting members may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appropriate form. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the Secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. The proxy appointment shall be effective only for the stated meeting. The proxy appointment shall be in substantially the following form:

I, _____, a full voting member in good standing of the standing of the BFSC, hereby appoint _____ as my proxy to cast my vote(s) at the meeting of the membership of the BFSC scheduled for the ___ day of _____, 20 ____.

Signature dated: _____

Signature of BFSC member

Witness

Section 6. Quorums: A quorum for either an annual or special meeting of the BFSC shall be the presence in person or by proxy of twenty five percent (25%) of full members who are eligible to vote. Any matter submitted to a vote shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast.

Section 7. Definition of "voting member": -- A "voting member" as used in these by-laws is a member who is at least eighteen (18) years of age and is in good standing with no arrearages dues or other indebtedness to the BFSC and who has been a full member in good standing for at least ninety (90) days prior to the vote in question. Each voting member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter, which is put to a vote, whether voting in person, by postal mail, by electronic mail or by proxy. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

Article V
Board of Directors

Section 1. Number of Directors: The governing body of the BFSC shall be a Board of Directors consisting of not less than seven (7) and not more than fifteen (15) full voting members. Directors shall be added to the Board of Directors in even numbers and the number of directors shall be determined from the following schedule. The number of club members as of the date of the call of the meeting to vote on candidates for the Board of Directors shall be determinative.

Number of Club Members	Number of Directors
1-70	7
71-90	9
91-130	11
131-170	13
Over 170	15

The Board of Directors shall establish the policies of the BFSC.

Section 2. Nomination and Election of Board of Directors:

- a. The President shall appoint and charge a Nominating Committee consisting of three (3) full voting members and shall designate one (1) of the three members as chairman.
- b. The Nominating Committee shall first canvas all full voting members who are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and shall determine every person among them who is willing to serve on the Board. Those persons who are eligible and willing to serve shall be divided into two groups, Group “A” consisting of those persons who are eligible and willing to serve as officers and “Group B” consisting of those persons who are either not eligible or not willing to serve as officers but who are eligible and willing to serve on the Board of Directors. At the annual meeting, each member shall be entitled to cast five votes for persons on the “Group A” list and the remainder of each member’s vote shall be cast for those persons on the “Group B” list so that each member is entitled to cast a total number of votes equal to the number of Directors to be elected. Members may not shift their votes out of one group of candidates into the other (for example - if a member has 11 votes he may not cast more than 5 votes for persons in “Group A” nor more than 6 votes for persons in “Group B”) though he is free to cast fewer than the votes to which he is entitled if he so wishes.
- c. Additional nominations for places on the Board of Directors may be made by written petition, signed by not less than three (3) voting members of the BFSC and delivered to the Chairman of the Nominating Committee or to the President of the BFSC. The nominating committee shall place the person so nominated in either “Group A” or “Group B” of candidates depending on the nominee’s eligibility and willingness to serve.
- d. A ballot setting forth the persons on “Group A” and “Group B” shall be submitted to the membership not later than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which the election shall take place. The ballot shall provide that each member may vote by one, but only one, of three ways: (1) by voting in person at the meeting, (2) by mailing or hand delivering the ballot or (3) by appointing a proxy to cast the member’s vote at the meeting. Instructions shall be included with the ballot as to as to how many votes each member is entitled to vote, how they are to apportion the votes between persons in “Group A” and “Group B”, the deadline and location where the ballot should be delivered if they choose to vote by mail, and how the ballot will be handled in the event that instructions are not followed. The ballot shall further state that nominations for candidates for the Board of Directors may be made from the floor at the meeting.
- e. Nominations for positions on the Board of Directors may be made from the floor at the meeting despite the fact that the person so nominated may not have been included on the written ballot mailed to the membership.

- f. Each nominee for a position on the Board of Directors (on either “Group A” or Group B”) shall be a full or honorary voting member in good standing who shall have been a member of a USFSA club for at least six (6) months prior to his nomination and a member of the BFSC at least 90 days prior to his nomination (per Article IV Section 7), and shall not be less than eighteen (18) years old, and shall have consented to serve, if elected, in the position for which he is nominated.
- g. In addition, each of the nominees for the offices of President; Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Test Chairman (“Group A”) shall be a full or honorary voting member shall not be less than eighteen (18) years old, and shall have served at least one (1) full term as a member of the Board of Directors prior to his nomination.
- h. The President shall appoint two (2) persons who are not at that time serving on the BFSC Board of Directors to tally the votes cast at the meeting for Directors along with mail ballots and proxy votes and shall report the results of the voting to the President who shall certify the votes and announce the results of the voting. In the event of a tie vote, the existing Board of Directors shall cast votes to break any tie.

Section 3. Board of Directors -Term: The Directors shall be elected for one year and shall take office June 1 following the date of their election. The Board of Directors is empowered to fill vacancies with its membership and to increase its membership as required in Article VI Section 1 of these Bylaws but such appointed directors shall serve only until May 31 of the year in which they were elected.

Article VI Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors
